GENERAL INFORMATION

THE PROPERTY

This superb Georgian-style residence was built in 2000 and sits on the popular Bretby Lane on the outskirts of Burton upon Trent. The current owners brought the property as a shell, and they have lovingly created a much-loved family home that offers lots of space for entertaining yet a cosy place for cooler days and evenings. This property offers everything for the modern family, with a fabulous plot that extends to approximately 0.5 of an acre.

The property offers lovely high ceilings and sash-style windows that are in keeping with an original Georgian home. The accommodation starts with a Georgian-style pediment entrance into a spacious hallway with Amtico flooring, stairs leading to the first floor, and double doors leading into the sitting room.

The sitting room to the rear takes full advantage of the stunning views, with French doors opening onto the terrace. Double doors open into the dining room, situated at the front of the property, which creates a great entertaining space.

Across the hallway is a snug/music room/family room, a guest cloakroom, and a superb and well-fitted Breakfast Kitchen.

The kitchen features lovely views out to the rear. It is extensively fitted with a range of base cupboards, drawers, matching wall cabinets and an island unit with a breakfast bar. Quartz worktops incorporate a gas hob and basin. The kitchen also offers a range of built-in appliances. Off the kitchen is a functional utility room with a Belfast sink set within oak worktops, a range of cupboards, and provision for a washing machine, tumble dryer, and further appliance space.

From the hallway, steps lead down to the cellar, which has been fully tanked and is currently used as a gym but would also make a fantastic cinema room.

The stairs open up at the first floor into an impressive landing. The principal suite is great. The bedroom has stunning views out to the rear. There is a luxury en suite shower room, and to the front of the property is a dressing area fitted with an excellent range of built-in wardrobes. Bedroom Two has the advantage of looking out to the rear and has a Jack and Jill Shower room, shared with Bedroom Three. Bedroom four also has the advantage of stunning rear views. Completing the accommodation on the first floor is the luxury family bathroom with its double-ended bath.

Outside

To the front, a gravelled drive approach allows for vehicle parking and leads to the Garage Block with a double garage with remote door power and light. To the side is a superb home office area. Ideal for those who work from home. The area comprises a hallway with a sink unit and base cupboards, a guest cloakroom and an office space.

The rear garden is just a stunning feature of the property. In good weather, fabulous far-reaching views allow you to see as far as the peak district. The garden has a great terrace for entertaining, with steps leading down onto the lawn with mature herbaceous planting and opening into a paddock of approximately one-third of an acre. It is a fabulous place to while away the summer months.

Location

Bretby Lane is situated on the outskirts of Burton upon Trent. It is a favoured mature residential area in a quiet spot close to open countryside. Close by is the popular Bretby Garden Centre with cafe, and Burton Golf Club. The villages of Bretby and Repton are just a short drive away, and the town centre of Burton upon Trent offers everyday shopping and leisure facilities. There is good onward travel via the A38 and A50; a train station in Burton upon Trent and East Midlands Airport is within an easy drive.
