GENERAL INFORMATION

This is a rare and exciting opportunity to acquire a large characterful home within a beautiful rural location. Original parts of the property date back to the 1850's with a further extension in the 1980's. The property now provides extremely spacious, well proportioned and very well presented living accommodation ideal for a large family.

The property benefits from mains gas central heating and upvc double glazed windows. The accommodation in brief comprises, most impressive split-level entrance hall, large living room with feature inglenook fireplace, snug/dining room, study, breakfast kitchen, utility and guest cloakroom. The impressive first floor galleried landing overlooks the hallway and leads to a large master bedroom with superbly appointed en-suite shower room, guest double bedroom with en-suite bathroom, three further double bedrooms and a large main bathroom.

Outside, the property is approached via a gated sweeping driveway leading to a large triple garage with further covered hard standing area for multiple vehicles/caravan. The gardens completely surround the property and are a true asset to the sale incorporating extensive lawned areas, mature trees, well established borders, brook with bridge over, duck pond and summer house. All of this is set within beautiful open countryside.

This is a very genuine opportunity to acquire a fine residence in convenient location.

PLEASE NOTE

There is potential to convert one wing of the house into annexed accommodation, ideal for a relative.

LOCATION

The property's location is convenient for both Ashbourne and Derby which combine to offer an excellent range of amenities. Nearby Brailsford benefits from a recently built primary school and a selection of shops and cafés and golf course. The property is also within both Queen Elizabeth Grammar School in Ashbourne and Ecclesbourne School in Duffield catchments.
